100 Tiny Tales of Terror - Kindle edition by Adam Ickes ... This is an anthology of 100 flash fiction stories of terror, each of them having only 100 words, making it a very fast read. Each scary story will manage to capture your attention up to the last word. My only observation is that I would personally have preferred less "hannibal lecter" references. Overall, a very interesting read that I highly recommend. Will take you less than 1 hour to finish this book. 100 tiny tales of terror by Adam Ickes - Goodreads Adam Ickes does a great job with these tiny strange, unsettling, creepy tales. If you are a Twilight Zone lover, you will love these short stories. Any of them can be made into longer Novellas. If you are a Twilight Zone lover, you will love these short stories. Any of them can be made into longer Novellas. 100 Tiny Tales of Terror: Stefan Dziemianowicz, Robert ... As the title says, 100 tiny tales, set out in alphabetical order of title, all extremely well-written. Some really are terrifying, most are at least scary, some are humorous, a few (only a few) bizarre. All stories bar one are under 10 pages (the other is 11 pages) with most around 5-8 pages long. So you can dip into this book at your leisure. It took me a few months to read the compilation reading a randomly-chosen story whenever I had time.
