Accidental Saints: Finding God in All the Wrong People by ... ACCIDENTAL SAINTS Finding God In all The Wrong People By: Pastor Nadia Bolz-Weber Like someone else I read their review the selection was terrible and I couldn't find a book I really liked usually I find 3-4 that excite me but not this time around. Accidental Saints: Finding God in All the Wrong People ... In Accidental Saints, Nadia Bolz-Weber shares from her journey as a stand-up comic turned Lutheran pastor, as she seeks to bring community and the love of Christ to ordinary, broken people. Funny, unflinchingly honest and a bit on the edge, what rings true in Bolz-Weber's stories are the struggles shared by both believers and skeptics in their journey toward wholeness. Accidental Saints: Finding God in All the Wrong People ... Accidental Saints is a triumph in faithful storytelling. In just a few lines of description and dialog, Nadia Bolz-Weber manages to capture all that is beautiful and maddening and frightening about our shared humanity, including her own inconsistencies and struggles as a Jesus-loving sinner-saint.
