Across a Moonlit Sea (Dante Pirates, #1) by Marsha Canham I hate to fault this book/the author for this but all the pirate talk, boat, and sea talk was a tad difficult for me to read. Although I have read multiple sea faring/captain/pirate books, this one had, by far, the most nautical references of them. Smashwords â€“ Across A Moonlit Sea â€“ a book by Marsha Canham A book of high adventure and romance, set in the time of Queen Elizabeth's infamous sea hawks, privateers who banded together to disrupt the armada Spain was building to invade England. This is the story of the Pirate Wolf, Simon Dante, and the only woman who could be his match in battle and in love.
