Addressing the Letter: Italian Women Writers' Epistolary ... Women writers of nineteenth- and twentieth-century Italy reinvigorated the modern epistolary novel through their re-fashioning of the genre as a tool for examining women's roles and experiences. Addressing the Letter argues that many epistolary novels purposely tie narrative structure to thematic content, creating in the process powerful texts that reflect and challenge literary and socio. Addressing the Letter: Italian Women Writers' Epistolary ... Italian women writers have reinvigorated the modern epistolary novel, fashioning it as a site for examinations of female roles and experiences. The intersection between the epistolary structure and the discussion of the female figure generates trenchant social analysis of contemporary mores. This.
